THE SEDUCTION CASE.—The case of Edward Finnegan, charged by Mary Gilmarin with seduction under the promise of marriage, was heard before Justice May yesterday evening.

Mr. S. G. Brent appeared for the accused, and Mr. J. S. Greene for the plaintiff. There was quite a large attendance at the trial, which took place at the Mayor's office.

Mary Gilmarin, the plaintiff, testified that she was in her 21st year; she had known Edward Finnegan most all her life; he had promised to marry her last December and had subsequently wooed her—first in his mother's house, where she spent one night, and she had been intimate with Finnegan in July, when, after repeated promises to marry her he had refused to do so. She was now about to become a mother.

Annie Gilmarin testified that Finnegan told her on the 16th of March that he was going to marry her sister and said he did not care if his mother did object to his marrying her.

The prosecution then introduced several other witnesses to prove the girl's good character and that Finnegan had told them he intended to marry her.

Edward Finnegan, the accused, testified that he would be 18 years old in September next. He admitted that he had been intimate with the girl, but denied that he had ever promised to marry her; he had given her money and believed that others had been intimate with her. He controverted the testimony of several of the other witnesses, and said his parents objected to him marrying the girl or any body else.

Mrs. Finnegan testified that after an employee of Bolling's Bill's Show had given Mary up she commenced going with her son and she could not keep the girl away from her home.

Plaintiff had told her that she was going to marry her son, but this witness would never agree to it; Mary had slept at her house and had gone into her son's room at night. She told of other things that Mary had said and done in witness's house and quoted her testimony by saying that the girl had led the boy astray.

After the close of the testimony, Mr. Brent asked that his client be discharged and made strong arguments in his behalf.

Mr. Greene read the law on the subject and said that Finnegan has deceived himself by his own testimony.

Justice May complimented Mr. Brent on the strong speech he had made, but said he had no case. He then told the accused that he had the choice of marrying the girl or going to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

After a consultation with his attorney, and after Mrs. Finnegan had given her consent, the accused agreed to marry the girl, and Rev. Mr. Young was sent for, who performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of Justice May and quite a crowd of witnesses—a license having been obtained in the meantime. After the way and the bride went to her home on the latter saying that he did not intend living with his wife.

Mrs. Finnegan said after the marriage that she would at once enter suit to have the marriage annulled, on the ground that her son was not of age, and that she had been forced to give her consent to the marriage to prevent him from being sent to jail.

PERSONAL.—Miss Jennie R. Veris, of Loudoun county, is visiting the family of Mr. John Summers, on Pitt street.

Miss Laura V. Eversol, after a pleasant visit to friends in this city, left to-day for her home in Maryland.

Mr. Charles Summers, of Barnesville, Ga., is visiting relatives here.

The Manassas Gazette says: Mr. R. Porter and family arrived home on Wednesday last from their visit to the Fatherland, and were heartily welcomed by their friends and neighbors.

Mr. Willie Adams, of the "Elite" cigar store, will leave here on Monday for a trip through the Valley of Virginia, where he has hosts of friends, who will welcome him after an absence of 24 years. He will spend most of his time in Strasburg, where he once lived.

Miss Jennie Powell, of Occoquan, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Rardon, on North Washington street.

Mr. C. P. Crump, of the R. & D. R. R., in Washington, and his wife have removed to No. 228 North S. Asaph street, this city.

The Hamilton Enterprise says Dr. K. has placed his drug store in charge of Dr. C. C. Pharmaker, an accomplished druggist and pharmacist. Dr. S. is of this city, and was recently connected with Mr. Wash Mithun's drug store in Washington.

Miss Griffin, of Florida, is visiting Mrs. W. H. Bacon, on Cameron street.

Mr. S. F. Beach has returned from a delightful trip through Europe much improved in health.

Mr. C. J. Wise has returned from the Jersey coast resorts.

Rev. S. A. Wallis, rector of Pohick church, yesterday entertained the vestry of Olcott and Pohick churches, at the reopening of those churches at Pohick yesterday.

A POPULAR MEDICINE.—E. S. Leadbeater & Co., the well known druggists, have secured the agency of Rod-m's Microbe Killer. This medicine is entirely new, but to the short time it has been discovered it has made some wonderful cures. Among those most prominent was the case of James Kavanaugh, Jr., who it is said, was cured of leprosy after being isolated from the city of New Orleans for three years. It has also made a number of other remarkable cures. The agents give free a scientific book on the Microbe theory, which will be found very interesting. Read the advertisement on the fourth page.

The Washington Standard and Pickle Works of this city, writes on Monday to fill an order of twenty-five barrels of catsup a month, for Richards & Co., of Washington, D. C.

THE RAILROAD CASES.—As stated in the Gazette the jury in the case of Makely vs. R. & D. R. R. in the Circuit Court of Alexandria yesterday rendered a verdict of $3,000 for the plaintiff after a trial which lasted for two days. Lewis Makely was killed in August, 1888, in the Pope's Head Creek accident, at which time Messrs. Mayo, Hatzmoos and Ruskman were also killed, and subsequently their heirs brought suit for damages. The railroad company defended the suits on the ground that it was not responsible for the death of the men, the accident being unavoidable and its cause never having been accounted for or explained. Both sides asked for a new trial and on this question the Court will decide at the November term. The Court today was engaged in hearing the Hatzmoos case.

COUNTY ITEMS.—The tract of land west of the Arlington estate in this county, containing about 80 acres, has been sold by Gen. J. E. O'Connell to Mr. L. Lewis, of Ohio, for $16,000 cash. The land is on the line of the proposed electric road from Washington to Fairfax Springs and Falls Church, and it is understood that it will be subdivided into building sites, and several buildings erected thereon and placed upon the market.

Mrs. F. P. Drain and Mrs. Van de Water, of Cuba, by their agent and attorney, James E. Clements, are having the large tract of 221 acres of land near Fort Myer surveyed and subdivided. There is some talk of the U. S. Government purchasing this tract so as to extend the limits of the fort. The railroad pit and target range of Fort Myer is now upon this land.

ROBBERY IN FAIRFAX.—Early last spring a white boy about 16 or 17 years of age, calling himself Albert Kemp, and hailing from near Laurel, Md., came to the farm of Mr. Everett Triplett, near Franconia station, Fairfax county, seeking work, which was given him. Yesterday, while Mr. Triplett was in the market in Washington, and his wife was in this city, the place was left in the charge of Kemp. Upon the return of Mrs. T., last night, Kemp had disappeared, taking with him a gold watch and chain belonging to Mrs. T., daughter, Miss Sallie Molan, about $10 in money, and a lot of clothing, besides breaking open a toy savings bank, and rifling it of its contents (about $2.00) which belonged to Mr. T.'s little boy, Kemp, of light complexion, light hair and eyes, about four feet eight inches in height, and wore a grey suit of clothes.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with two prisoners and one lodger at the station house.

Justice May this morning disposed of the following cases:

Sarah Levi and Maria Knight, colored, arrested by officer Bettis for disorderly conduct, were fined, the former $2 and the latter $5.

Fannie Chapman, colored, arrested by officer Bettis for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.

Two female residents of the Fourth ward, arrested by officer Grady for disorderly conduct, and a white man, arrested by officer Bettis on the same charge, were dismissed with reprimands.

STEAMER DISABLED.—The steamer Jane Moseley, while on her way up the river yesterday evening from Colonial Beach with a number of excursionists on board, became disabled by one of her wheels breaking down and falling upon the shaft. She, however, proceeded on her way to this city with one wheel, arriving here at 3 o'clock this morning. Instead of 9 o'clock last night at which hour she was due. The Arrow-smith passed the Moseley and offered to lend assistance, but the latter declined the offer, much to the indignation of the passengers who wished to reach home at an early hour. The Moseley is now at the shipyard here for repairs.

ELKS' EXCURSION.—The second excursion of Washington Lodge of Elks will take place next Tuesday afternoon and evening. The afternoon will be devoted to dancing the evening a grand social session will be held, the participants being the Franz Abt, Schubert and Manerohor Associations, Messrs. George Scott and Hubbard Smith of Washington, and Mr. H. C. Nalla of this city in solos. Steamer Macalester leaves Prince's street wharf at 2:20 and 6:30.

PROPERTY SALES.—The Alexandria Real Estate Company has sold to Moses Rose a lot on Montgomery street, between Columbus and Alfred, for $187 50.

R. T. Lucas has sold to Samuel Posey a house and lot on the south side of Wilkes street, between Henry and Fayette, for $800.

DEAD.—Mr. Andrew Allmendinger, a collector for the Porter Brewing Company, who was run over by a street car in Washington on the night of the 22d inst., and had one of his legs cut off, died last night at Providence Hospital, in that city, from the effects of his injuries.

A FINE SHOW.—The Hartford Courant says of Washburn & Arlington's circus: "The performance was to a crowded house and was a first-class exhibition. It is not as large as Barnum's, but there is enough to it keep you laughing and entertained for three solid hours. The performers and artists are the best; the attendants courteous."

THE WEATHER IS WARM.

We are having some pretty hot weather—hotter than we had it last summer; but there is one consolation in the fact that its discomforts may be materially lessened by observing the rules of health, not only in what we eat, but what we wear. In selecting articles of wearing apparel one should be governed not only by texture, but by beauty. These two points considered, the last, but by no means the least to consider, is the cost. In purchasing our stock we have paid strict attention to these three essentials—TEXTURE, BEAUTY and PRICE. There we have happily combined, and take pleasure in calling the attention of customers to a few items which we present as pointers to
